EVENT INFORMATION

Booth Info:

Your booth space will be approximately 11x11 and it will be inside our "pavilion" tent shaped building. No tables, chairs, wifi or electricity will be provided. You will may not drive directly to your site so be prepared to haul your things a short distance.

Set up begins at daylight. Please arrive early and be ready for shoppers before 8:45 at the very latest and plan to stay until 4:00.

We will have a restroom available for you to use, access to it will require going outside. The restroom in the shop is not capable of handling a busy day. Please help by using the outdoor accessible bathrooms.

After you are unloaded you will be required to move your vehicle to the west end of our parking lot to make room for others to unload. It is an easy walk.

Event Fee:

This year's event fee is $75. If you are accepted an invoice will be emailed via square. Your space will be confirmed and promoted once payment is received.

We will hold the event rain or shine or snow, If we cancel the event your event fee will be applied to a future event. Refunds on booth spaces will not be given.

No MLM or direct selling type vendors will be accepted.

Merchandise must be available to purchase and take home the day of the show. We are looking for handmade, vintage and independent businesses with the most unique items and beautiful displays.

Due to space limitations and style preferences all applications will be reviewed by our team and juried accordingly. We will limit the amount of each type of booth to ensure a quality event.

Thank you for your interest in this event.

Please email your application to aprilpetersen@charter.net subject line "Christmas Market". If your items are not on social media please include photos.

By signing your application you agree to our event and parking requirements. Pink + Frillos is not responsible for any damaged, lost or stolen items during or prior to the event.
